EXPERIENCE

STUDENT

January 2017 - Present

Iowa State University | Hawkeye Community College

DEVELOPER

February 2017 - Present | Independent

I started out coding simple websites in HTML5 and CSS3, then I picked up JavaScript and have been using a variety of frameworks for building fast, mobile-first, and responsive web/mobile(iOS, Android, ethereumOS) applications. I am passionate about blockchain technology and decentralization and really like the suite of tools that enable developers to host fast, modern, and censorship-proof sites/(d)apps on the open web. I've been coding for over 5 years and enjoy learning new technologies and their potential impact on our world and its people.

If I do work for you and you do not pay me, I will insert a poison pill or another exploit and ensure that whatever work I did for you is no longer available.
